

House Resolution No. 929

Whereas, upon occasion the members of the Missouri House of Representatives pause to recognize an outstanding group of young athletes who have demonstrated exceptional commitment to the overall pursuit of their lofty goals and major objectives; and

Whereas, the Girls Basketball Team of Chadwick High School experienced the honor, glory, and distinction of advancing to the Final Four in 1A State Competition for the first time ever in the history of their school; and

Whereas, on March 16, 2002, the Chadwick Lady Cardinals proudly took Third Place in the Show-Me Showdown at the Hearnes Center in Columbia by defeating the Macks Creek Lady Pirates in an exciting contest that culminated in a 48-38 victory and a permanent place of prominence in their school's record books; and

Whereas, the Chadwick Lady Cardinals achieved this impressive feat by working together as a team while making the most of each player's individual talent in key situations which paved the way for ultimate success and proved their ability to compete at a level with the very best; and

Whereas, the talented Lady Cardinals finished the exciting 2001-2002 season with a most respectable record of twenty-five wins and six losses, an achievement that was realized through hard work, steadfast determination, and sheer desire to excel; and

Whereas, second-year Head Coach Scott Vanscoy did an incredible job in making winners of student-athletes Abby Payne, Alysia Sisco, Melissa Rains, Ashley Peirce, Nikki Sisco, Jessi Peirce, Courtney Jones, Brooke King, Katy Dewitt, Brittany Bilyeu, and Kendle Walker with the assistance of managers Stacey Sisco, Cassie Lewis, Brittany Jones, and Misty Bettis:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-first General Assembly, join unanimously in a thunderous round of applause together with best wishes for the Chadwick Lady Cardinals upon the completion of a most spectacular season as the deserving winners of Third Place honors in Missouri Class 1A State Basketball Competition; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Chadwick High School.
